3rd AMGBE

Conference & Exhibitions

(International Conference on Arab-Malaysian Islamic Global Business and Entrepreneurship)

9th – 13rd JULY 2011 | Amman, Jordan

SYNOPSIS

The College of Business, University Utara Malaysia(UUM) in collaboration with the University of Jordan, Malaysian Embassy in Jordan, Malaysian Student Department in Jordan, Jordan Ministry of Higher Education and SMART-i are pleased to announce the 3rd International Conference on Arab-Malaysian Islamic Global Business and Entrepreneurship. Recognizing the pivotal role of partnership is every aspect of business practice, the conferences choose "Smart partnership-glory" as this year's theme.

The conference will be held at Jordan. The long history of education and research in both institutions, provide an ideal place for the conference.

FIELD OF DISCUSSION

- Technical Education
- International Relationships
- Islamic Studies
- Quality Control
- Trade between Middle East and South-East Asia

WHO SHOULD ATTEND ?

The conference should be of interest to academicians, businessmen and also students who are interested in discussing issues related and pertaining to the global business. These include representatives from national and regional organizations, administration, academics from business, management, economics and other related areas,

FEES FOR PARTICIPANT AND PRESENTER

- RM 1555.55 / USD 515.55

OBJECTIVES

- To achieve the vision, mission and objectives of the university to be of the ranks of global universities. Create opportunities for co-operation of mutual benefits among the universities through joint conventions.
- To generate top quality researchers and academicians who can contribute to the expectations fulfillment of public and private sectors.
- Facilitating academic achievement of Islamic nation and further aligned to its contribution to the development of mankind's intellectual
- To provide platform of brainstorming for various segments of academic and administrative of public and private sector's domain.
- To optimize the benefits of the contemporary technological revolution as to propel the Islamic economical systems and simultaneously be the base for all humanitarian activities.
- To explicitly quantify the crucial relationships between the economical, political and social systems and determine its individual impact the contemporary issues of globalization.

Organized by :

Collaboration with :

COB College of Business SMART-i