CAKNA: 2019-nCoV DAN LANGKAH LINDUNGI DIRI

UUM ONLINE: Warga Universiti Utara Malaysia kini sedia maklum tentang penularan 2019 Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV) di Malaysia.

Berdasarkan laporan dari Kementerian Kesihatan Malaysia (KKM), terdapat empat (4) kes yang telah disahkan positif dan pihak universiti mengambil berat tentang potensi dan risiko penularan jangkitan virus tersebut di Malaysia, khususnya di dalam kampus.

Sehubungan itu, UUM telah mengambil pelbagai langkah proaktif bagi membendung penularan jangkitan virus tersebut, malah menyarankan agar seluruh warga universiti agar sentiasa 'cakna' dan mengambil langkah-langkah melindungi diri termasuk mengamalkan tahap kebersihan diri yang tinggi seperti kerap mencuci tangan.

KKM juga telah menyarankan orang ramai yang ingin melawati negara China agar menangguhkan perjalanan mereka kecuali untuk urusan penting yang tidak dapat dielakkan.
