International Conference on Social Education and Community

INTRODUCTION

The International Conference on Social Education and Community 2013 (ICSEC2013) is the first conference organized by the Continuous Professional Development and Social Education (II) Leadership Development Programme Scheme (LEADS) group from Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) in collaboration with Institut Sosial Malaysia (ISM). ICSEC 2013 will be held from the 11th to the 13th of November in the beautiful and legendary island of Langkawi.

The conference theme is Transforming Social Capital in the 21st Century through Education, which highlights the importance of transforming social interactions between members in the community through education that will influence its social capital in line with the aim of developing global citizens. With its three main tracks that encompass social, education and community, it is hoped that this conference will bring together various stakeholders and members of the community at large to share their input in an intellectual arena to solve pertinent problems related to the development of social capital.

Thus, ICSEC 2013 welcomes all innovative ideas and research through the participation of people from the universities, research institutes, industries, private and public organizations and professional bodies from various parts of the world.

OBJECTIVES

- a platform for researchers to address and understand the social influence on human capital.
- an avenue for researchers to share their understanding of the influence of education and how it impacts on the development of a contributing citizen socially, intellectually and economically.
- opportunities for researchers and practitioners to assist relevant authorities and organizations in order to generate appropriate interventions to develop future contributing citizens.
- an avenue for various stakeholders and members of the community to share their input in an intellectual arena to solve pertinent problems related to the development of social capital.
