IDEAS WERE BRAINSTORMED TO MAKE THE 33RD UUM CONVOCATION EVEN MORE SUCCESSFUL

UUM ONLINE: Ideas were tossed around by the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dato' Dr. Ahmad Bashawir Abdul Ghani on how Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) can be better at hosting the 33rd UUM Convocation Ceremony next year.

He said the convocation was one of the major events of the university and UUM had held it for the 32nd time since the University's inception.

"At this point in time, we have become matured together with UUM; hence we need to think of a better plan next year so that the convocation ceremony does not become a boring and predictable event which at the end of it all, everybody is left feeling tired yet unsatisfied.

"It should be an event filled with useful and meaningful content including invitations to honorary graduates, successful alumni and recipients of Professor Emeritus," he said at a special luncheon held to honour the various committee members who were on duty throughout the 32nd UUM Convocation Ceremony at the Experiment Hall recently.

Besides that the Vice-Chancellor also expressed his hope that the events at the convocation fare could include activities that were more energetic, creative and innovative as well as engage the local community.

Behind the successful completion of the convocation ceremony were the strong men and women made up of administrative and academic staff as well as students who worked tirelessly to ensure that the graduates' dream of graduating with a degree in an eventful ceremony became a reality.
