UUM IS SET TO PLAY HOST TO THE IRB SPORTS CHAMPIONSHIP THIS SEPTEMBER

UUM ONLINE: The Inland Revenue Board (IRB) will organise the 2024 Hasil Games Championship at Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) from 26 to 30 September 2024.

Marking the official launch of the 2024 Hasil Games Championship, the Coordination Meeting for the Organisation of the Sports Championship was held at the UUM Senate Meeting Room last Tuesday.

In his welcoming speech, UUM Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dr Mohd Foad Sakdan expressed that UUM has made extensive preparations to host the 2024 Hasil Games by providing suitable venues and areas.

"UUM is honoured to have been chosen as the host for this prestigious sports event involving IRB staff. We will ensure that this sport will run efficiently and seamlessly," he said.

The 2024 Hasil Games Championship will feature four distinct zone categories, namely the north zone, cyber zone, central zone, and south zone. A total of 2454 participants, including committee members, will be involved in the games.

A total of 19 types of sports will be featured at the tournament, including futsal, chess, volleyball, netball, badminton, tennis, and many more. Additionally, there are several other sports being considered, such as archery, exploration, and soccer.

Also in attendance at the meeting were Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Student Affairs & Alumni), Prof. Dr Ahmad Martadha Mohamed, who is also performing the duties of Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic and International); Director of Kedah IRB, Mr. Aziz Din; and Director of Perlis IRB, Mr. Akmal Mat Said.
