appear on the cover sheet at the top of the first page. Manuscripts will be reviewed by a panel of referees. Comments will be made available to contributors without disclosing the referees' names.

COVER LETTER

Manuscripts should be accompanied by a cover letter stating that the material has not been published, and not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

ABSTRACT

The abstract should be brief, self-contained and explicit, and should not exceed 200 words. Contributor who submits a manuscript in Bahasa Melayu is required to submit an extended abstract in English not exceeding 300 words.

REFERENCES

References should be carefully checked. The references are to be cited in the text in the author-date format (APA style). A reference list only of works cited, should be provided at the end of the text arranged in alphabetical order. Examples of the format for journals and books are as follows:

Armstrong, J. S., & Overton, T. S. (1977). Estimating non-response bias in mail surveys. Journal of Marketing Research, 14, 396–402.

Salma Ishak., & Mohd. Makzan Musa. (1996). Attitudes of police personnel towards their job. ANALISIS, 4(1), 13–31.

Kimberly, J. R., Norling, F., & Weiss, J. A. (1983). Pondering the performance puzzle. In R. H., Hall & R. E., Quinn (Eds.), Organizational theory and public policy (249–264). Beverly Hills: Sage.

Van Home, J. C. (1992). Financial management and policy. Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey: Prentice Hall.

END NOTES

Footnotes should not be used. Endnotes should be used instead.

ABBREVIATION

Full names of agencies should be used in the first citation in any article. Accepted abbreviations or acronyms may be used for subsequent citations.

TABLES

Tables should be numbered with Arabic numerals. Title and column headings should be brief.

ILLUSTRATIONS

Photographs, if any, should be large, clear, glossy prints, showing high-contrast. Each photograph should be identified on the back, complete with the author's name and the number of the illustration. Enquiries and articles submission should be addressed to:
