UUM ORATORS MADE A CLEAN SWEEP AT THE INTERNATIONAL SPEECH CONTEST 2020

UUM ONLINE: Thailand - The UUM brand continues to stand out in the international arena as three of its orators (speakers) made a clean sweep at the International Speech Contest 2020 held at Princess of Naradhiwas University, Narathiwat, recently.

UUM orators successfully eliminated rivals from Yala Rajabaht University, Fatoni of Thailand University and Princess of Naradhiwas University at the three-day competition which began on 13 February.

The champion of the competition was a fellow student of the Bachelor of Law programme, Mr. Lim Sen Teng; followed by Mr. Parthiban Saravannan, of the Bachelor of Science and Economics programme as the first runner-up and at third place, Ms. Ayu Lyana Kamsahpihi of the Bachelor of Philosophy, Law and Business programme.

The three of them took home cash prizes - 1,000 THB; 800 THB and 500 THB respectively as well as certificates of appreciation.

All participants were evaluated based on the content and language skills throughout the two rounds of competition. In the first round - the prepared speech, contestants were asked to prepare a speech entitled, 'Does online education play a crucial role in education system?' while in the second round – the impromptu speech, contestants had to spontaneously respond to questions posed by the jury.

Manager of the Debate, Advocacy and Oratory Unit, Mr. Muhammad Hafiz Badarulzaman said the victory proved that UUM had a great oratory team who were not only exceptional locally but also internationally.

"The victory gained is due to the high language proficiency level and incredible ideas put forth that won the hearts of the jury which in turn helped to secure victory for UUM students.

"Even though the competition was conducted in English, our students were not afraid to compete despite the intense competition from other universities," he said.
