Salam Sejahtera dan Salam 1 Malaysia,

7th August 2017

Site visit for the upcoming MOHE English Language Carnival 2017 (ELCA) was led by Dr. Ali Haniffa and Ms. Salmi Hussein accompanied by the committee members from the School of Languages, Civilisation and Philosophy (SLCP). Mr. Muhammad Mazlan, Deputy Chief Librarian welcomed the visit and briefed the committee on the locations to be used as well as suggested some ideas for consideration. He assured that this event would receive complete support from the Sultanah Bahiyah Library.

8th August 2017

A simulation was conducted for the upcoming event, MOHE English Language Carnival 2017 (ELCA) which will be held on the 14th and 15th of September 2017. ELCA hopes to expose the participants to the importance of having a good grasp of English as it will be one of the key in marketability of graduates. This participants will explore the usage of English in various exhilarating setting. This simulation is to ensure the games and activities conducted for the ELCA are suitable for the participants later on. Any ambiguous or irrelevant components will be discussed and corrected before the actual event. Participants for this simulation involved 170 enthusiastic students from the Centre of Foundation Studies in Management. They participated in the six games available: Running Man, Stand up and Deliver, Poem Recitation, Tongue Twisters, Poster Presentation and Word Jumble. These students demonstrated good teamwork and language skills throughout the entire session.

SLCP would like to thank all parties involved in both activities.
