THE 20TH IMT-GT VARSITY CARNIVAL CONTINUES TO SERVE AS A MEDIUM TO NURTURE THE SPIRIT OF TOGETHERNESS IN THE REGION

UUM ONLINE: The 20th Indonesia-Malaysia-Thailand Growth Triangle (IMT-GT) Varsity Carnival is capable of educating the younger generation through sports and culture by fostering core values such as cooperation while nurturing the spirit of togetherness among the people in the region.

In view of that, a handover ceremony of the UUM Contingent Flag in conjunction with the 20th IMT-GT Varsity Carnival 2018 was carried out this morning. The UUM Contingent flag was handed over by the Director of the Student Affairs Department, Dr. Mohd Dino Khairri Shariffuddin at Laman Siswa, Culture and Arts Centre, UUM.

"The carnival aimed to strengthen the relationship among students in three countries specifically Malaysia, Indonesia and Thailand.

Dr. Mohd Dino urged all participants to prepare and perform well and uphold the good name and image of UUM throughout the carnival.

"There's nothing like a little healthy competition and I hope students will maintain a high level of discipline in every event and do your best to achieve success. I would also like to express my appreciation for your contributions and commitment to ensure the success of this carnival," added Dr. Mohd Dino.

The carnival will be held on 20 till 26 July 2018 at Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) Arau, Perlis. A host of cultural performances, seminars and sports events have been slotted throughout the carnival which highlighted the theme - Winning is good but friendship is number one.

UUM contingent will be participating in sports events specifically Football, Badminton, Tennis, Volleyball (women), Basketball (men) and Pétanque.

Meanwhile, a seminar with the theme - Moving towards Industrial Revolution (IR4.0); the Role of Youth in Virtual Entrepreneurship will definitely be the highlight of the carnival.
