IFP PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATE PRODUCES MANY ISLAMIC FINANCIAL PLANNERS

UUM ONLINE: Islamic Financial Planner (IFP) Challenge Status Series 1/2020 is capable of producing more Islamic Financial Planners, which in one fell swoop recognises their expertise in Islamic financial management.

Fellow participant, who is also a polytechnic lecturer, Mdm. Zainon Abidin Zinon, said she was interested in attending the workshop as she wanted to enhance her knowledge on Islamic financial planning and management.

According to her, the programme will produce more indigenous Muslims who have the knowledge and skills to provide sound advice to the Muslim community on the importance of Islamic financial management.

"The programme also helped me to establish networks with other participants who are made up of industry players," she said.

Meanwhile, Finance Manager, Mdm. Razanah Ruhana Mustapha said the workshop would complement her as a certified Islamic Finance Manager.

According to her, she was excited to acquire knowledge presented by experienced and dedicated lecturers in the field of financial planning and the knowledge she gained would indeed breathe new life into her career.

"I hope that the new knowledge and skills that I acquired can be utilised to help the public plan their finance in the most comprehensive way, apart from helping them boost their business to higher levels.

"I would like to thank all the lecturers who were willing to share their knowledge throughout this six-day course at UUMKL and many thanks to the entire faculty," she said.
