CEO TALK axiata

Tan Sri Jamaludin Ibrahim

Managing Director/President &
Group CEO of Axiata Group Berhad
Adjunct Professor of School of Quantitative Sciences, UUM

“Nurturing Industrial Talents: Thoughts from a CEO”

Leadership is a simple word, yet it brings to mind a variety of meanings for different people. Leadership can be the ability to create an inspiring vision and set direction. It is about using management skills to pull and motivate a team to a common destination, creating achievements that wouldn't have happened otherwise.

It is both an art and science.

Tan Sri Jamaludin Ibrahim is a CEO and leader in the telecommunications industry, recognized locally and globally. He is known as a good nurturer of people and talent. Tan Sri Jamaludin will be giving his thoughts on the topic of 'Nurturing Industrial Talents' while sharing his personal and career development journey. In this talk, he will also share his views on the most important traits for a talent to grow and progress in one's career development to achieve a successful and meaningful future.
