UUM PRO-CHANCELLOR SHARES IDEAS ON WAYS TO STRENGTHEN UUM

UUM ONLINE: The Pro-Chancellor of Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM), His Highness Tengku Tan Sri (Dr.) Dato' Paduka Mahaleel Tengku Ariff recently paid UUM a courtesy visit.

His arrival was welcomed by the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dato' Dr. Ahmad Bashawir Abdul Ghani at the Vice-Chancellor's Meeting Room.

At the meeting, he expressed his readiness to share ideas and thoughts as the Pro-Chancellor of UUM in order to further strengthen the mission of UUM towards becoming the Eminent Management University.

Various matters were discussed namely the efforts to strengthen the English language proficiency among students, the ways to strengthen the Governance of the Registrar's Department and the means to materialize the proposed formation of the UUM Strategic Unit.

In addition, matters regarding the role of alumni in improving the skills and marketability of graduates, especially in seizing employment opportunities in foreign multinational companies, efforts to enhance strategic cooperation in the field of High Technology and Mathematics with leading foreign universities namely Saint Petersburg State University, Russia and Moscow State University, Russia were also discussed.

Discussion also revolved around the efforts to increase the number of International students through long-term strategies as underscored in the UUM Strategic Plan Phase III (2021-2025) in addition to the establishment of offshore offices abroad that will focus on the Indonesian, China and Central Asia markets.

Earlier, His Highness Tengku Tan Sri (Dr) Dato' Paduka Mahaleel Tengku Ariff was inaugurated as the new Pro-Chancellor of UUM in conjunction with the Royal Convocation Ceremony and Inauguration of the Pro-Chancellors of UUM at Anak Bukit Palace.

The Vice-Chancellor also extended his heartfelt appreciation and heartiest congratulations on His Highness' inauguration.
