THE VICE-CHANCELLOR WELCOMES A COURTESY CALL BY THE AMBASSADOR OF KUWAIT TO MALAYSIA

UUM ONLINE: 25 October- UUM Vice-Chancellor, Professor Dr. Ahmad Bashawir Abdul Ghani welcomed a courtesy call by the Ambassador of Kuwait to Malaysia, H.E Saad Abdullah Saleh A. Al Asousi at the Visitors' Lounge, this morning.

During the visit, both parties shared some ideas for potential collaborative ventures between UUM and the Embassy of Kuwait in Kuala Lumpur in areas including the organization of joint conferences, academic staff exchange programmes, student mobility programmes, research collaborations and also scholarship for students.

In fact, the Government of Kuwait has also expressed the willingness to award full scholarship to three Malaysian students to continue their studies at universities in Kuwait.

In addition, both parties also discussed on the possibilities of fostering closer relationship by hosting joint cultural excursions and cultural programmes to further strengthen the international relations and also develop Islamic-based projects such as waqf (endowment).

UUM is one of the public universities in Malaysia that is recognised by the government of Kuwait along with Universiti Malaya (UM), the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), Universiti Malaysia Perlis (UniMAP) and Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia (UTHM).

The visit to UUM by the Ambassador of Kuwait to Malaysia was held in conjunction with his working visit to Perlis from 24 to 26 October.
