

CERAMAH KESIHATAN BERTAJUK " HOW CAN HPV (Human Papillomavirus) AFFECT ME ? "

Pusat Kesihatan

Telah Dihantar: 04 Oktober 2010 16:21

Kepada: UUM - All Staff

Sk: UUM All Student

4 OKTOBER 2010/25 SYAWAL 1431H

"UUM : UNIVERSITI PENGURUSAN TERKEMUKA"
(THE EMINENT MANAGEMENT UNIVERSITY)

1. Human Papillomavirus (HPV) is a common virus that affect both males & females.
2. HPV can cause diseases such as cervical cancer, vulvar, vaginal cancers in females and genital warts in males & females.
3. At least 50% of sexually active males and females acquire genital HPV infection at some point in their lives.
4. Pap smear may help to prevent cervical cancer.
5. HPV vaccination may help to prevent:
 - a. cervical cancer, vulvar & vaginal cancers in females
 - b. genital warts in males & females

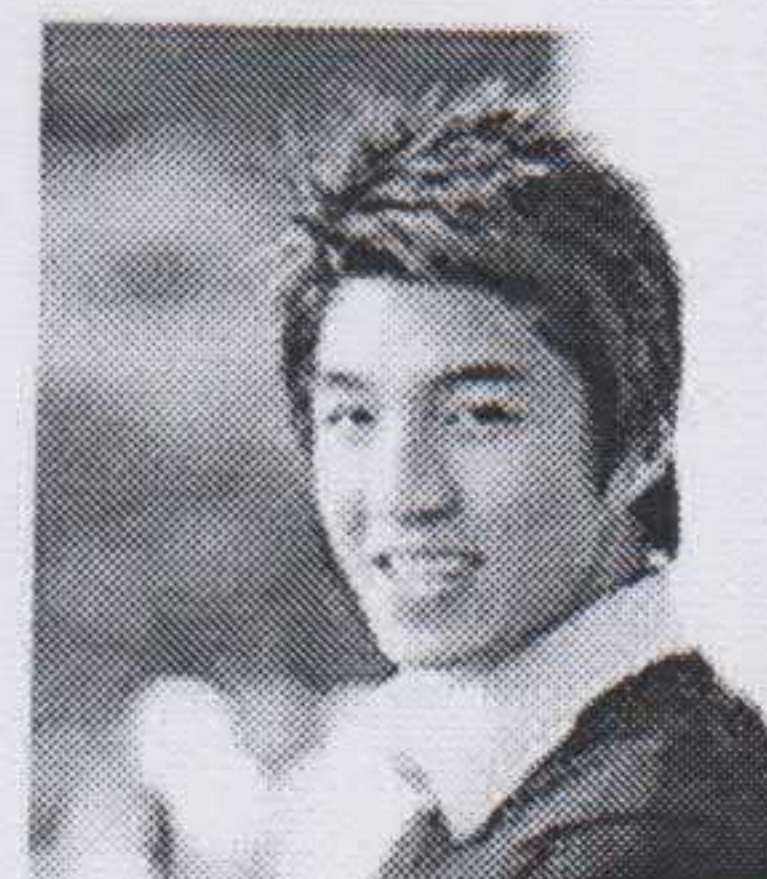

How Can HPV Affect ME?

Are

U

Protected?

HPV affect both males & females.

Protect yourself from HPV related diseases.

Come find out how!

26th October 2010, Tuesday

11am - 3pm

UUM

● Free door gifts ● Limited quantity!

Learn more!

Time	Program	Speaker	Venue
12.00pm	Arrival of students & staffs		Pusat Konvensyen A
12.15pm	Welcome speech & Opening Ceremony	Dr Mohamad Sanuri Rahamad Pengarah PKU UUM
12.30pm	"How Can HPV Affect Me?" session	Dr Annuar Hussainy Hussein Consultant O&G Putra Medical Centre

Protect Yourself!

● Free consultation on HPV diseases

● Subsidized rate for HPV vaccine*

Time	Program	Supported by	Venue
11am - 3pm	HPV consultation + vaccination	Pusat Kesihatan Universiti (PKU)	Pusat Konvensyen B

For enquiries/registration, please contact:

Quek, SMART Team: 014-944 5606