32ND. UUM CONVOCATION CEREMONY SET TO BE MORE ADVANCED AND INTERACTIVE

UUM ONLINE: It has been nearly two weeks since the 31st. Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) Convocation Ceremony drew down its curtains, but the services and contributions made behind the scenes in ensuring that the historic event was successful and smooth, are not forgotten.

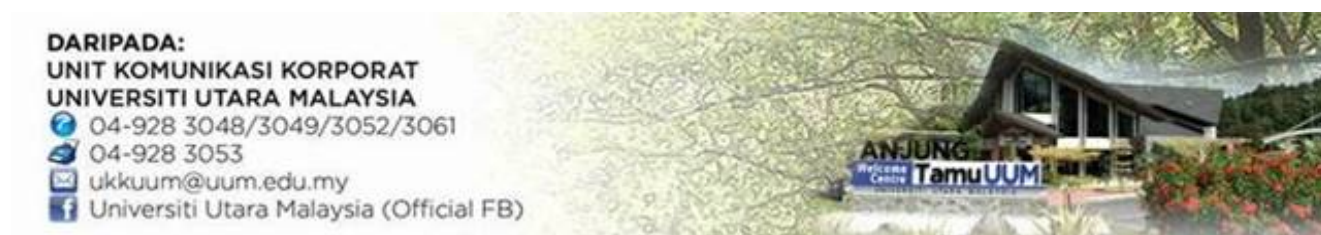

UUM Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dr. Ahmad Bashawir Abdul Ghani said that ensuring the success of a ceremony attended by 20,000 people is not an easy feat; however, with the sheer hard work put in by all the respective members of staff, proved the smooth running of the five-day event.

"I hope next year's convocation ceremony will be better and I will make sure that the agenda will be filled with more fascinating content and improvements will be made in the aspects of input and ideas throughout the event.

"For the 32nd. UUM Convocation Ceremony next year, I look forward to highlighting more advanced, sophisticated and interactive techniques so that the event will be memorable for visitors and remain forever etched in their minds," he said at the luncheon honouring UUM members of staff who contributed to the successful organisation of the 31st. UUM Convocation Ceremony at the Experimental Theatre, Mu'adzam Shah Hall, yesterday afternoon.

He further reiterated that this year's convocation ceremony also made history when the Raja Muda of Kedah Darul Aman was inaugurated as a new UUM Pro-Chancellor.

He also expressed hopes that UUM will continue to excel not only at the national level, but also at the international level, due to the efforts of the denizens of the University.
