THE VICE-CHANCELLOR MEETS LEADERS OF UUM INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SOCIETY

UUM ONLINE: UUM Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dr. Ahmad Bashawir Abdul Ghani held a meeting with the UUM international student leaders at the Senate Room recently.

The students comprised student representatives and the Committee Members of the International Student Society (ISS) who have enrolled into the various UUM study programmes at Bachelor, Master and PhD levels.

These students hailed from Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Somalia, Venezuela, Palestine, Jordan, Morocco, China, Uzbekistan, Kenya, Iraq, Algeria, Pakistan, India and Indonesia.

At that brief meeting, the Vice-Chancellor welcomed the students and was all ears listening to the issues and grievances that were brought forth. Both parties sought mutual cooperation in solving the issues and grievances whilst forming closer relationship.

At the meeting, stories were shared and views were exchanged. At the end of the meeting both parties agreed to give good cooperation to facilitate in dealing and resolving the issues faced by the international students.
