YBrs. Prof./Assoc. Prof./Dr./Sir /Madam,

Greetings from Othman Yeop Abdullah Graduate School of Business, Universiti Utara Malaysia.

OYAGSB Online – 20 April 2017

Each year, Earth Day—April 22—marks the anniversary of the birth of the modern environmental movement in 1970.

As a contribution to Mother Nature and to appreciate the Earth, Othman Yeop Abdullah Graduate School of Business and UUM International School took the initiative to celebrate the Earth Day. OYAGSB-UUM IS Earth Day was held this morning and took place at Seminar Hall A, Convention Centre. Around 200 people including students from the UUM International School and primary schools in Kubang Pasu district, parents, teachers have gathered to celebrate the day.

The Earth Day activities started with participants walking from OYAGSB and the Chancellory Building to the Convention Centre all wearing shades of green. Then they had zumba session followed by an Earth-themed poem competition with the final activity of chorus singing 'Heal the World' song.

This program had the involvement of kindergarten and primary school students as a good attempt to educate these children about the importance of preserving the environment and protecting Mother Nature. It is also pertinent to build understanding on the concepts of climate change and be aware of its threat to our planet. We need to empower everyone with the knowledge and to inspire action and inculcate environmental protection right from the outset.
