

- The mission statement or supporting documents specify the student populations the school intends to serve.

The school specifies students who are appropriate for collegiate education in management and who are consonant with other provisions of the mission statement (refer Standard 1: Mission Statement).