GIFT OF EID FOR THE UNSUNG HEROES OF UUM

UUM ONLINE: The staff on duty on the morning of Eid ul-Fitr are among those who are dedicated individuals who consistently make sacrifices to ensure the safety and well-being of the university are maintained.

Hence, marking the end of Ramadan and the arrival of Syawal, the Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) presented the Eid ul-Fitr gift hampers in conjunction with 1445H Eid ul-Fitr at the Foyer of the Sultan Sallehuddin Chancellery Building.

Prof. Dr Mohd Foad Sakdan expressed his appreciation and gratitude to all the dedicated staff who will be on duty on Eid ul-Fitr.

According to him, a total of 97 UUM staff will be on duty during Eid ul-Fitr. This dedicated group of staff includes 53 staff from the Security Department, 16 from UUM-EDC, 24 from the Department of Development and Infrastructure Management, 3 from the Islamic Centre, and one from UUMIT. Despite the festive season, these individuals have chosen to sacrifice their time to celebrate the festive day with their families.

He stated that this act of sacrifice holds significant value, and they are the “Unsung Heroes of UUM.”

“They are dedicated to their work and allow their colleagues to take leave on the joyous day after a month of fasting. Consider all the efforts we make as a form of Jihad in spreading mercy to the entire universe,” he said.

At the same event, he also presented contributions from the MKSK Group Hibah Scheme to three UUM staff who contributed and have passed away.

The individuals who were present included the representative of the assistant hostel manager, the late Mr. Mohd Zahir Mat Isa, namely Mr. Anas Fikrie; assistant engineer, the late Mr. Mohd Hazwan Azemi, represented by Mdm. Azita Aziz and Mdm. Masita Ahmad, who represented Mdm. Harishah Ahmad whose husband passed away but was not a UUM staff member.

According to Prof. Dr Mohd Foad Sakdan, the objective of this scheme is to safeguard the welfare of the staff, their family members and their beneficiaries by providing financial protection to the heirs if the contributors are afflicted with illness, calamity and death.

In addition, he also presented Eid ul-Fitr Gift Hampers – Ramadan Blessings to 10 staff who have children with chronic illnesses and others.

“I hope we will continue to strengthen our spirits and pool our efforts together to ensure the safety and well-being of the university are always maintained.

“I hope that the upcoming Eid ul-Fitr marks the pinnacle of personal growth following a month of fasting and that we will be able to sustain this improvement and earn the pleasure of Allah S.W.T.,” he said.

Present at the event were the Deputy Vice-Chancellors, members of the University Management Committee, and Coordinator of the MKSK Group Hibah Scheme – Takaful Ikhlas, Cr. Luqman Moidin.
