ABDULRAHMAN RECEIVES THE BEST INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' LEADER IN MALAYSIA 2017 AWARD

UUM ONLINE: A UUM student from Yemen, Abdulrahman Ameen Derhem Mohammed Al-Duais, 25, carved a glorious history for UUM when he was presented with the Best International Students' Leader in Malaysia 2017 Award, in conjunction with the Outstanding Student Awards Ceremony 2017, held at Universiti Malaysia Perlis (UniMaP), recently.

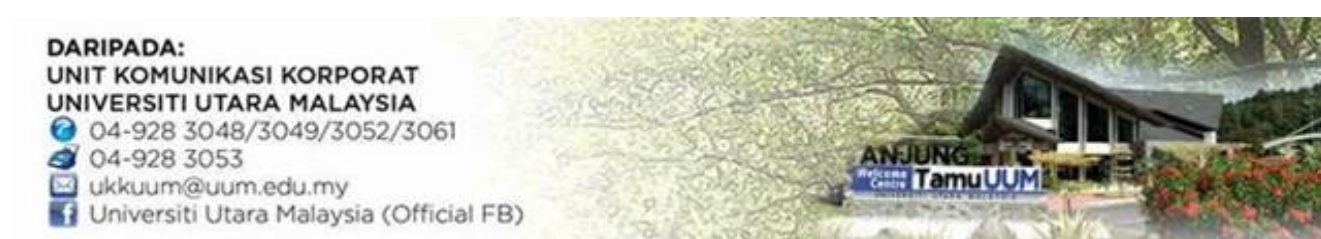

The award honours the outstanding contributions, personality and leadership qualities shown by Abdulrahman during his tenure as the President of UUM International Students' Society (ISS) in 2016 and 2017. More interestingly, the recognition was the first to be awarded to UUM student.

Abdulrahman, who is also the al-Bukhary Foundation scholarship recipient, completed his Bachelor of Business Administration studies at the School of Business Management and he will graduate in November 2018.

In recognition of his excellence performance, he was also selected as a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma (BGS) UUM chapter, which recognizes and honours top performing students in business in an institution recognised by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), including UUM.

"My utmost gratitude to Allah SWT who turned this dream a reality. My sincere appreciation goes to the UUM management team, ISS committee members, the Principal and the previous committee members of Proton Student Residence and all international students who have given their support to ensure the success of our activities," said Abdulrahman.

The award was presented by the guest of honour, the Minister of Education Malaysia, Dr. Maszlee Malik.
