UUM AND UNPRI INDONESIA SEALED MOA TO ESTABLISH STRATEGIC COOPERATION

UUM ONLINE: Medan, Indonesia - UUM Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dato' Dr. Ahmad Bashawir Abdul Ghani signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoA) with the Universitas Prima Indonesia (UNPRI) in its bid to establish strategic cooperation in the field of higher education.

The strategic collaboration will be through the offer of the Master of Science (International Business) programme by coursework under the auspices of the School of International Studies (SOIS, UUM COLGIS). The programme will be implemented in full-time mode at UNPRI campus, Medan Indonesia for three semesters.

According to the Vice-Chancellor, this collaboration will open up opportunity for Indonesian students in Medan particularly and in Northern Sumatra in general to pursue their studies at postgraduate level.

Meanwhile, on the part of UNPRI, the MoA was signed by its Director of the Master Degree Programme, UNPRI, Dr. Azharuddin. The event was witnessed by the Rector of UNPRI, Dr. Chrismis Novalinda Ginting and Chairman of the UNPRI Foundation, Dr. I Nyoman E Lister.

Following the completion of the MoA signing ceremony, a tour to visit the site at the UNPRI campus was held.

Also present were UUM representatives namely Dato' Muzammil Mohamad ,member of the UUM Board of Directors who represented the Chairman and Assoc. Prof Dr Mohamad Farizal Rajemi, Director of the Centre of International Affairs and Cooperation (CIAC).
