

Understanding Effective Student Supervision

26 May 2011 (Thursday)

8.30 a.m. - 1.00 p.m.

Workshop Room A, Convention Complex

Synopsis

The workshop will focus on student supervision involving both humanistic and strategic skills. Humanistic skills enhance supervisor's understanding of their own personality and emotions needed to supervise effectively as well as understanding students. Strategic skills mobilize and synergize supervisor's expertise. Both skills will ultimately synthesize supervision process. Through interactional discussion and group activity, participants will have a better understanding of effective student supervision.

Workshop coverage

- Student characteristics
- Supervisor's role and competencies
- Issues in supervision

Learning outcomes

By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to:

- Develop better understanding of overall humanistic and strategic skills needed for effective supervision.
- Share and discuss experiences in supervision.

Who should attend

Academic staff who are currently involve/will be involved in academic supervision (thesis, dissertation, project paper etc.)

REGISTRATION FEES:
RM 50.00 - UUM STAFF
RM 100.00 - NON-UUM STAFF