Assalamualaikum W.B.T and 1Malaysia Greetings!

JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES (JIS)

Journal of International Studies (JIS) is a refereed journal published by UUM College of Law, Government and International Studies, Universiti Utara Malaysia. Its main objective is to provide a channel for the publication of articles based on research, original thought and commentaries in politics, international relations, international business and other related fields. This journal would not only benefit academicians and practitioners but also the general readers. The views expressed contained therein are those of the individual authors and not necessarily those of the editorial board or the University. (JIS) welcomes original contributions not previously published in any journal. Journal of International Studies is listed in MyCite.

Current and past issues are available at <http://jis.uum.edu.my>

Review of Manuscripts

Manuscripts will be reviewed by the Editorial Board and at least one independent referee. Decisions regarding the publication of a manuscript will be based on the Board's recommendations. The manuscript will be evaluated based on its appropriateness, contribution to the discipline, cogency of analysis, conceptual breadth, clarity of presentation, and technical adequacy. To ensure that manuscripts are evaluated solely on their merit, the author's identity is concealed from referees during the review process. The full names and affiliations of all authors should appear on a separate cover page of the manuscript. Manuscripts submitted by members of the journal's Editorial Board are subjected to the same review procedure. Manuscript submitted will not be returned.

Cover letter

Manuscripts should be accompanied by a cover letter stating that the material has not been published, and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Abstract

The abstract should be brief, self-contained, explicit and should not exceed 200 words. Local contributors are required to submit two (2) abstracts, one in Malay and the other in English.

References

References should be carefully checked. The references are to be cited in the text in the author-date format-APA (6th ed.). A reference list, only of work cited, should be provided at the end of the text arranged in alphabetical order.

Abbreviations

Full journal title should be used, for the first citation ::1 any article. Accepted abbreviations or acronyms may be used for subsequent citations.

Tables

Tables should be numbered with Arabic numerals. Where the table should appear in the text should be indicated by typing separate line, "Insert Table Here". All tables should be on separate sheets of paper and not in the main body of the text. Titles and column headings should be brief.

Illustrations

Illustrations must be in a camera-ready form. Captions should be typed double-spaced in sequence, on a separate sheet of paper. Photographs, if any, should be large, clear, glossy prints, showing high-contrast. Each should be identified on the back, complete with the author's name and the number of the illustrations.

Contributors

Contributors must provide their full name(s), affiliation(s), academic qualification(s), postal addressees, e-mail addressees, telephone and fax number(s) on the first page of the paper. The contributor or the main contributor will receive a complimentary copy of the issues in which his/her article appears and 5 off prints.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright of their articles, including abstracts, to the Journal of International Studies.
