ALUMNI MAI BALIK UUM 2.0 STRENGTHENS ALUMNI-UNIVERSITY BONDS

UUM ONLINE: The Alumni Centre of Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) organised Kenduri Alumni Mai Balik UUM 2.0: 'The Legacy of Giving', which saw the participation of a convoy of 20 alumni vehicles, adding the vibrancy of the programme aimed at strengthening the enduring bond between alumni and their alma mater.

The Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Dr. Ahmad Martadha Mohamed said that the return of alumni to UUM was not merely an opportunity to reminisce but also symbolised the enduring relationship between alumni and the University, as well as their shared role in shaping its future.

According to him, the Alumni Learning and Training Centre (ALTRAC) is more than just a physical facility; it serves as a meeting place, a platform for knowledge sharing and a space for alumni to reconnect and contribute to the University.

He also encouraged to make full use of ALTRAC by organising various activities with students, including experience-sharing session, mentorship programmes, and create opportunities for networking.

“Come back to UUM. Utilise the facilities that have been provided. Bring your experiences and share them with our students,” he said in a speech read by Assistant Vice-Chancellor, UUM CAS, Prof. Dr. Ts. Osman Ghazali.

The event also witnessed the presentation of a RM 4,000 contribution from the UUM Sarawak Alumni association (AURAS) to UUM.

Prof. Dr. Ahmad Martadha Mohamed also emphasised that the involvement of alumni could be further expanded through various platforms, including academic, welfare, entrepreneurship, sports, recreational and community activities.

He expressed hope that Mai Balik UUM 2.0 would serve as a catalyst for more programmes and collaborations involving alumni, students and the University in the future, while establishing ALTRAC as an active hub for knowledge sharing, meaningful interaction, alumni activities and contributions to the University.
